

Ethically committed to service, quality, respect, integrity and teamwork

Our Mission

Inoplas strives to be the chosen partner for manufacturers who need the design and production of high quality plastic mouldings. We share values of innovation and integrity and we work honestly with partners and suppliers we know and trust. We aim to grow our business with the same passion and teamwork we use to craft every product we make.

Our Vision

To inspire our customers and exceed their expectations in quality, cost and delivery through continuous improvement and customer partnership. To supply superior products to industries at the forefront of their technology.

To grow financially, providing stability and opportunity for all employees.

Our Values

Customers

To value our Customers, treat them with respect, under promise and over deliver. Provide outstanding products and unsurpassed service, deliver quality and value to our customers.

Development

Be creative not complacent, embrace change, don't stand still. Listen to ideas, encourage and inspire original thinking. Reward performance and celebrate success. Care.

People

To value our Team for their knowledge, diversity, skills and experience. Respect and embrace individuality, empower all to make a difference. Support our colleagues, build trust, energise every individual. Nurture talent and build capability in others

Ambition

To strive to be the best, see challenges as opportunities; be passionate, curious and inspirational. Look to the future and not to the past. Aspire to impress our colleagues, customers and supplier partners.

Communication

To listen, communicate effectively and set clear expectations. To be open and honest, give feedback, share information, manage situations constructively. Solve problems together, identify root causes, don't judge.

Responsibility

To value our reputation, uphold the highest standards, lead by example at all levels, focus on quality, take responsibility for all of our work and our actions.

Ethics

Committed to the highest standards of integrity, service, quality, respect and teamwork. Aware of our responsibility to the wider community and the environment.